To William Osler.

Phi Beta Kappa

Extract from the Constitution

Article Fifth

The following persons shall be eligible to membership in this chapter

First. Collegiate students who are candidates for the bachelor's degree and who are distinguished for academic attainments; provided that no such student be elected prior to the Easter Recess of his graduating year, and provided that not more than one-fifth of the graduating class shall be so elected

Second. Graduate students, not already members of Phi Beta Kappa; provided that no such student, coming from a College at which there is a Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, be elected without the approval of that Chapter

Third. Former collegiate students of the Johns Hopkins University who, since graduation, have won special distinction

Fourth. Persons who have received degrees from the Johns Hopkins University prior to the institution of this Chapter may be elected to membership as if members of the University at the time of their election

Fifth. Members of the Academic Staff of the Johns Hopkins University

Sixth. Members of other Chapters of the Phi Beta Kappa and resident at the Johns Hopkins University shall be admitted as Temporary Members of this Chapter, but shall have no vote. Such members are, however, eligible to active membership

Seventh. Any person not a member of the Academic Staff of the Johns Hopkins University and distinguished in letters, science, art or education may be elected an Honorary Member of this Chapter. But more than five honorary members shall not be elected in any one year, and no less than twenty-five active members shall constitute a quorum for the election of an honorary member

Article Sixth

All elections to membership in this Chapter shall be by ballot at a regular meeting; and such persons only shall be declared elected as shall have received the unanimous vote of the members present returns its most grateful acknowledgments to

and to all others who have contributed to its relief in a time of financial loss and anxiety ❧ The names of these generous promoters of advanced education in the city of Baltimore will long be remembered ❧ By their liberality a fund of nearly a quarter of a million dollars has been secured for the maintenance of the University ❧ To all who are engaged in the service of this institution this timely support is most encouraging
